

OBITUARIES

Emil Stryker

Emil Stryker died on 31st January, 1990 aged 72 years. Emil was born in West Germany in 1917. He came to Britain in 1939, learned English and became very involved in the deaf world here. Many people have benefited from his wise counselling and advice and those with whom he came into contact will have their own special memories. Emil was a founder member of the World Organisation of the Jewish Deaf and was well known and respected in many countries. Emil was made a Vice-President of the Jewish Deaf Association in 1988 in recognition of his outstanding efforts for the deaf.

Deepest sympathy goes to his wife Jane. Emil will be sadly missed by all his relatives and friends. May he rest in peace.
